

David Valinsky Associates

We share your passion ...

- Dedicated professionals
- Tireless volunteers
- Generous donors

At David Valinsky Associates, we are privileged to work alongside all of those whose passionate commitment to philanthropy enhances the quality of life in their local communities, regions, and the world.

Whether you're interested in preparing for a capital campaign, establishing a new foundation, developing a strategic plan, introducing or invigorating a planned giving program, increasing annual support for an existing organization, or developing your board, we'll provide the support you need to achieve the results you want.

As fellow professionals, volunteers, and donors … we share your passion.
